

Leadership and Supervision Training

Provided by:

The Pohly Center for Supervision and Leadership Formation
(United Theological Seminary)

Saturday, April 24, 2010

These trainings are vital for anyone desiring to strengthen the leadership structure of their congregation! The skills learned in these trainings will increase teamwork, coordination, and morale among ministry leaders and will equip leaders—both paid and volunteer—to increase the level of effectiveness of other leaders under their care.

Morning Session: 9:00a – 12:00p

Staff/Pastor Parish Relations Committee Training

A healthy, well-equipped S/PPRC can be a source of strength and motivation for the leaders under your care and supervision!

- Learn how your S/PPRC can partner with your pastor and staff to strengthen your congregation’s effectiveness.
- Gain a great understanding the role and tasks of the S/PPRC
- Learn how to build a covenant between the S/PPRC and the pastor and staff
- Learn meaningful ways to come alongside your pastor and staff
- Receive expert advice from the Pohly Center staff related to your specific needs

Afternoon Session: 1:00p – 4:00p

Effective Leadership and Supervision

Creating a leadership environment that sets people up for effective outcomes is critical for congregational health and mission effectiveness. This is valuable training for those serving on the Committee on Nominations and Leadership Development, Church Council, Staff/Pastor Parish Relations, as well as heads of specific ministry areas!

- Learn how to write outcome oriented job descriptions for paid staff and volunteer leaders
- Learn principles and methods for providing periodic meaningful feedback and evaluation
- Learn healthy ways to hold people accountable for projected outcomes
- Discover ways to celebrate successes and propel leaders on toward new goals
